GEOLOGY AT A GLANCE.

Ives Strata Map of part of the United States of America and Canada,

In which the Architecture of the Earth's Crust is Graphically Exhibited, Illustrating Fundamental Facts alike of STRUCTURAL GEOLOGY AND PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY.

The Strata Map is a device for the more efficient teaching of Physical Geography and Elementary Geology in Schools. It consists of a series of Ten Superimposed Maps, of DIFFERENT COLORS, representing the several geological formations of the district, enclosed in a glazed frame, the whole hinged to admit of examination in detail. By its means superposition, denudation, and outcrop of strata are graphically exhibited, with the phenomena of escarpments, outliers, inliers, dip, strike, conformability, &c., and the Cards may be bent to show synclinal or anticlinal folds.

OPINIONS OF EMINENT GEOLOGISTS.

Yale University. Professor James D. Dana.
"Well fitted for the use of instruction in the science."

Professor Addison E. Virrill.
"It will be of very great advantage in the teaching of geology."

Harvard University. Professor N. S. Shaler.
"An extremely useful adjunct to our means of illustration."

Johns Hopkins University. President D. C. Gilman.
"Wherever American geology is taught your map should be a part of the apparatus."

Pennsylvania University. Professor Geo. A. Koenig.
"The map will be of special use in schools, which can only devote a short time to the study of Geology."

Michigan University. Professor Alexander Winchell.
"It seems to me that the device will commend the study of Geology to many persons who might otherwise regard the subject as difficult and uninviting. The work prepared by Mr. Ives ought to be used extensively in American schools."

Cornell University. Professor H. Shaler Williams.
"A valuable aid to teachers of geology as a means of graphically representing the grand facts of stratigraphy in the Eastern United States."

Columbia College, New York. Professor J. S. Newberry.
"A valuable aid in teaching geology, giving as it does to the student a clear idea of the superposition of the different geological systems at a glance."

Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H. Professor C. H. Hitchcock.
"Am satisfied that its use will greatly assist students to understand the geological structure of the country."

Academy of Natural Sciences of Philadelphia.

"The representation of Strata, as imposed one upon the other, by means of cardboard is certainly a good plan, for apart from rendering more intelligible the general expressions of the Map, it permits of ready alteration and the possibility of constantly bringing the map up to date, in other words to make it conform to more recent discoveries."

Boston Society of Natural History.

"Your map representing superposition and the various phenomena of geological science, so far as the distribution of rocks on this continent is concerned, has greatly interested me. I think that in the hands of a good teacher it would prove an efficient and useful adjunct in the teaching of geology."

American Museum of Natural History.

"In the direction of a want long felt by Teachers of Geology and will undoubtedly be appreciated by them as well as by the student."

U. S. Geological Survey.

"After examination I am able to state that the work has been executed with care and fidelity, and I believe it will be a valuable aid to teachers."

New York State Survey.

"I believe that maps constructed upon this method would be extremely useful in the hands of competent teachers."

Pennsylvania Survey.

"A piece of new and useful apparatus for teaching Geology, by representing to the eye of the student the areas of superimposed formations. I cordially recommend it to teachers and students."

New Jersey Survey.

"It is very neatly done and must prove a great help to intelligent teaching and studying of Geological Science."

Professor Angelo Heilprinn

"The representation of Strata, as imposed one upon the other, by means of cardboard is certainly a good plan, for apart from rendering more intelligible the general expressions of the Map, it permits of ready alteration and the possibility of constantly bringing the map up to date, in other words to make it conform to more recent discoveries."

Professor Alpheus Hyatt.

"Your map representing superposition and the various phenomena of geological science, so far as the distribution of rocks on this continent is concerned, has greatly interested me. I think that in the hands of a good teacher it would prove an efficient and useful adjunct in the teaching of geology."

Professor R. P. Whitfield.

"In the direction of a want long felt by Teachers of Geology and will undoubtedly be appreciated by them as well as by the student."

Major J. W. Powell, Director

"After examination I am able to state that the work has been executed with care and fidelity, and I believe it will be a valuable aid to teachers."

Professor James Hall, State Geologist

"I believe that maps constructed upon this method would be extremely useful in the hands of competent teachers."

Professor J. P. Lesley, State Geologist.

"A piece of new and useful apparatus for teaching Geology, by representing to the eye of the student the areas of superimposed formations. I cordially recommend it to teachers and students."

Professor Geo. H. Cook, State Geologist.

"It is very neatly done and must prove a great help to intelligent teaching and studying of Geological Science."
